ACKERMAN Rosé d'Anjou

Wine facts

Varietals: 70% Grolleau, 20% Gamay, 10% Cabernet franc.

Winemaking: All the grapes are carefully selected and harvested in the Anjou region from vineyards planted on schistous and shale soils. The combination of the exceptional terroir and temperate climate from the Loire produce diverse types of Rosé: dry Rosé de Loire, medium-dry Rosé d'Anjou, sweet Cabernet d'Anjou. Just like the climate of the region, this Rosé d'Anjou is tender and slightly sweet.

Packaging

Ackerman Rosé d'Anjou comes in an elegant traditional Loire bottle. .

Tasting notes

Colour: Bright and clear pink colour with salmon shades.

Nose: Refreshing nose with aromas of mint and white pepper, red berries, English candy .

Palate: Fruity with aromas of strawberries and redcurrants. Round and smooth with a vivacity that balances the sweetness and refreshes the palate on the finish.

Food pairing

This food-friendly wine matches Asian and Indian cuisine, grilled fishes, cold meat, fruit salads.
